

JOE BOGGS APPOINTED ROAD COMMISSIONER

Madison County Man Named By Gov. Black To Be Head of State Highways.

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Aug. 28.—Joe S. Boggs, of Richmond, a civil engineer, formerly connected with the State Roads Department, was today appointed State Commissioner of Roads to succeed Rodman Wiley, resigned. Gov. Black made the appointment.

A Splendid Appointment

The above Associated Press dispatch will be good news to the host of friends of Mr. Boggs at home here, where he is so popular. Mr. Boggs is splendidly qualified in every way for the position to which he has been appointed, and his selection by Gov. Black will be a popular one.

Mr. Boggs served as District Road Supervisor of the State Road Department for some time before resigning to enter the contracting firm of Boggs, Burnam & Company. He is president of the Southern National Bank and numbers his friends by his acquaintances, all of whom will congratulate both him and the state upon his appointment. Rodman Wiley, former road commissioner, resigned the other day to enter private business.

WILSON'S FIRST SPEECH AT COLUMBUS, O., SEPT. 3

(By Associated Press)
Washington, August 28.—President Wilson will leave Washington next Wednesday on his speech-making tour in the interest of the peace treaty and will deliver his first address in Columbus, Ohio, next Thursday, probably in the evening.

Among the other places the President will speak at, are Denver, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. In California, the home state of Senator Johnson, one of the leading republican opponents of the peace treaty, speeches will be made in Los Angeles, San Francisco, San Diego. His only address in Oregon will be at Portland. He will also speak in Spokane and possibly Seattle, Washington.

Bond Makes Big Farm Sale

Boliver Bond sold the Helm farm of 498 acres, one mile from Versailles on the Nicholasville pike, for $285 an acre, for the Security Trust Company, of Lexington, trustee of Margaret Helm. The farm was sold in the following tracts: No. 1 containing 300 acres was sold to M. M. Thompson for J. B. Boston, for $326 an acre. No. 2 containing 100 acres was sold to J. B. Boston for $250 an acre. No. 3 containing 98 acres was sold to J. B. Boston for $160 an acre.

Hunting Bootlegging Witnesses

Deputy U. S. Marshal Dave Reagan, of Frankfort, was, in town Thursday getting witnesses in a bootlegging case. Marshal Reagan was formerly on the Frankfort police force, where he made a fine record, and he has done equally as well since becoming a member of Uncle Sam's force.

Ole Hanson To Quit His Job

(By Associated Press)
Seattle, Aug. 28.—Mayor Ole Hanson announced today he would resign at a meeting of the city council this afternoon, if his present plans are carried out.

C. A. Tabor sold his 260 acre farm on Boones Creek near Pine Grove, in Clark county, to J. L. Gregory, of Lexington, at $350 an acre. The farm is partly in Clark and partly in Fayette county and is a portion of the old Wallis farm, which was owned by that family for about 100 years.

In a few weeks Morrow will begin to promise to "reform." He might as well promise chloroform. We have framed a picture of Ed Morrow as a "reformer." —Georgetown Times.

ELBERT WAGERS FARM SELLS AT $169.75

The Elbert Wagers farm of 234 acres was sold at public auction Thursday morning at $169.75 an acre. Mr. Will Parrish was the purchaser. Contending bidders were Messrs. W. A. Arbuckle, John Wagers, Wilson Brandenburg and others. The sale was conducted by L. P. Evans, local real estate dealer, and was a decided success in every way. Mr. Evans is having much success with the many sales he is conducting this season and his services are much in demand. The Wagers farm is located on the Moran's Mill turnpike and is known as the Joe Jones place. All of the land is in grass except about 60 acres in corn and tobacco. It is splendid land, and Mr. Parrish is being congratulated upon acquiring such a splendid place. He will get possession on the first of next January.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the Madison County Chapter American Red Cross at the Masonic Temple Saturday afternoon, August 30th at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of electing a Chairman and Vice-Chairman as the present officers, Mr. Harvey Chenault and Miss Lucia Burnam, have resigned, their resignations to take effect September 1st. The elections of these officers is absolutely necessary to hold the Chapter together and to retain possession of the Chapter funds which will otherwise probably revert to the National Organization. It is earnestly hoped that there will be a large representation of men as well as women. Harvey Chenault, Chairman. Lucia Burnam, Vice Chairman.

DR. J. W. PORTER CAN'T COME TO GILEAD NOW

Rev. Edward Lawson, the pastor, announces that the meeting which was planning to be held at Gilead, beginning Sept. 1st, has been postponed indefinitely because Dr. J. W. Porter, of Lexington, who was going to do the preaching is unable to be with us at present now for both night and day services. Announcement will be made later as to when he will be there to preach.

PAINT LICK

The Tates Creek Association met with Freedom church Tuesday of this week.

The meeting closed at the Christian church at this place with 30 additions. Burdette Bright and sister Elizabeth, of Stanford, are visiting Mr. B. Ramsey and family.

Transylvania Presbytery will meet with the Paint Lick Presbyterian church Sept. 2nd.

Miss Pattie Moyers who was elected to teach the 7th and 8th grades in our graded school has resigned. This throws a hardship on our trustee to find another when the school term opens September 1st.

Prof. Chester A. Long has broken dirt for a four room cottage. When he gets the cage he will have the bird to come into it.

Tom Logsdon expects to build a residence soon near the school building. Our Paint Lick real estate is on a boom and building lots are scarce and high.

The Burgin boys came over Saturday and crossed bats with the Paint Lick boys. It was an interesting game all the way through and the score stood 4 to 3 in favor of Paint Lick.

U. M. Burgess and James Davis are building tobacco barns.

Bennett Roop contemplates building a house as soon as he can get possession of the land.

We need more carpenters in order to get these buildings up before cold weather.

The Richmond Motor Company sold a handsome enclosed Essex car, to Homer Whittington this week. The same firm sold a Hudson to Arthur Todd.

CARNEGIE'S WILL FILED IN NEW YORK

(By Associated Press)

New York, Aug. 28.—The will of Andrew Carnegie, made public today, estimates the iron master's estate between twenty-five and thirty million dollars. Ten thousand each is bequeathed to former President Taft and Premier Lloyd George, of England, and $5,000 each to Mrs. Grover Cleveland, since married, and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, widow of the former President. The real estate, all art works and household goods are left to Mrs. Carnegie, with financial provisions for herself and her daughter. Carnegie's public gifts and charities during his life time aggregated $350,000,000, according to a statement of Elihu Root, Jr. A total nearly a million dollars is bequeathed to Cooper Union, Pittsburgh University, Hampton Institute, the Authors' Club Relief Fund, Stevens Institute, and St. Andrews Society.

AUTO ACCESSORIES FIRM LAUNCHED HERE

Articles of incorporation have been filed for the Sandlin Supply Company, which plans to open up in Richmond as an automobile accessory house. The incorporators are Dr. H. G. Sandlin, Judge S. D. Parrish and W. H. Grider. The capital is fixed at $2,500. It is understood that Mr. Grider, who has been managing a hotel at Irvine, will shortly return to Richmond, to become active manager of the new business. Everett Sandlin, who is one of the most experienced automobile men in the city, will be salesman. It is said to be the purpose of the new company to handle auto accessories, tires, etc. of every kind.

PRICES ARE LOWER

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, Aug. 28.—There is a growing conviction on the Board of Trade that the agitation against high living costs is achieving the results reflected today in lower prices for grain and provisions.

WAR BREAKS OUT IN BALKANS, AGAIN

(By Associated Press)
London, August 28.—Fighting has broken out everywhere in Montenegro and the whole country is in a state of revolution, according to news received here. The Serbians are using strong measures in an attempt to suppress the uprising. "We seem to be in for a recrudescence of the Balkan trouble," was the statement made to the Associated Press from an authoritative source.

The Montenegrin uprising seems likely to bring to a head the long smoldering differences between the Montenegrin supporters of former King Nicholas and the faction adhering to plan for the incorporation of Montenegro into the Jugo-Slav state.

Gen. Botha Dead

(By Associated Press)
Pretoria, Union of South Africa, August 28.—General Louis Botha, premier and minister of Agriculture of the Union of South Africa, died suddenly early today after an attack of influenza. He was commander-in-chief of the Transvaal Boers during the Boer war. He was 56 years old.

Morgan Evans Ill

Friends will regret to know that Mr. J. Morgan Evans is quite ill, this week. He is threatened with an attack of blood poison which affects his left arm, and is causing intense suffering. All hope to hear of his improvement soon.

Two More Swinebroad Sales

Col. G. B. Swinebroad, who seems likely to eclipse all his former records in real estate sales this fall made two good sales in Lancaster Saturday afternoon. He sold for S. W. Moss, his home on Danville avenue to Clarence Green, of the Carversville section, for $7,025. For Henry Moore he sold his home on the same street to Jones Anderson, of Preachersville, for $8,600.

UNION OFFICIALS CONDEMN STRIKERS

(By Associated Press)

Cleveland, Aug. 28.—Unless members of the railroad brotherhoods now on strike on the Pacific coast return to work by Saturday morning, brotherhood officials will support the Federal Railroad Administration in its efforts to operate those particular federal controlled railroads, it was announced today.

Strikers Still Out

Los Angeles, Aug. 28.—Early today not striking trainmen reported for work.

FINE TOBACCO SOLD IN BOYLE AT 40C

One of the first sales of this season's tobacco crop is reported from Boyle county where W. S. Miller, of near Junction City, and Isaac Dunn, of Lexington, sold their crop of 8 acres of tobacco to a Lexington firm at 40 cents the pound. The crop is to be taken from the ground up. This tobacco is one of the best crops in the county. The yield will be about 2,000 pounds to the acre and is to be delivered on or before the first day of March, 1920.

MORE CARS RUNNING IN LOUISVILLE TODAY

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, Aug. 28.—Street cars on 10 lines began operation today an hour earlier than yesterday. Service is promised until six o'clock, an hour later than during the strike which began last week. The company claims many old employees are returning to work. The union plans to ask members of all unions not to ride on cars.

Here, There, Everywhere

Pat Avery, at the age of 93, just joined the Muddy Ford Christian church in Scott county. In his prime he was a steamboat pilot on the Ohio river.

In Clark county J. W. Poynter sold to J. C. Fox a farm on the Two Mile pike, about a mile and a half from Winchester, consisting of 109 acres, for $7,500. It is known as the Simpson place.

Stallard Wells, 60, of Maimi, shot and killed himself in the undertaking rooms of his nephew Guy S. Wells, at Shelbyville, whom he was visiting. He was a native of Nelson county.

Danville has refused to accept the proposition to buy a motorcycle to run down speeders, but directed the police to arrest all violators of the law and requested that papers publish the names of all speeders brought up in court.

Col. Clyde Gaines, of Winchester, has bought of Jesse Chilton, a 665-acre farm in Oldham county for $75,000. The place has a splendid brick residence, and is located on the Ohio river, about 20 miles from Louisville. Col. Gaines will use it as a summer home. Possession March 1.

Bids were opened for the erection of a tobacco redrying plant at Danville. A. Walker, was awarded the contract over Stoesser & Company, of Versailles, and M. S. Pierce, of Danville. The building will be 100x160 feet, two stories high and will be constructed of galvanized iron.

Bolivar Bond offered the farm of Chilton A. Reed, in Clover Bottom in Woodford county, for sale. One hundred and forty acres was bid up to $240 an acre by Cal Redmon; 80 acres was bid by the same person at $110 an acre; 100 acres was run up to $125 an acre. Reed rejected all the bids.

Miss Lula Belle Arnold, of Wilmore, and the Rev. Alexander Kenner, of Williamstown, were married at the home of the bride's brother, the Rev. E. K. Arnold, the officiating minister. After a trip to Illinois, the young couple will locate at Wilmore. Mr. Kenner is studying for ministry, and owns a farm near Williamstown. His wife has been for the past eight years a teacher in Asbury College.

THE WEATHER

Local showers and thunder storms, probably tonight and Friday; not much change in temperature.

CAR SHORTAGE STOPS OHIO CATTLE BUYER

The car shortage continues to interfere with local cattle shippers. Mr. C. O. Githens, of Miamisburg, Ohio, was in Richmond several days this week, looking for some likely feeding cattle, but he did not purchase any on account of being unable to get cars to ship them out in. Mr. Githens has frequently bought cattle in Kentucky, and often comes to Madison. He says that the farmers in his state are getting more and more away from cattle feeding due to rigid federal inspection laws, which hamper the shipment of cattle from one state to another.

MADISON COUNTY BOY DIES AT WEST POINT

News was received here today of the death at West Point, N. Y., of Lewis Sebastain, a well known young man of the Ruthton section of the county. Details as to the cause of his death were not received, but many friends will mourn over his untimely end.

Democratic Nominee Is Here

J. A. Goodman, of Elkton, democratic nominee for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, is in town today shaking hands with friends. Mr. Goodman carried Madison by a nice majority and is very appreciative of that fact. He is confident that the democratic state ticket, headed by Gov. Black, will win by an old time majority. He says that Ed Morrow hasn't the slightest chance in the world to defeat Gov. Black, who is making good at Frankfort, and deserves an endorsement.

Says Sugar Should Sell At 10c

Ten cents a pound for sugar is a reasonable price, says the Kentucky High Cost of Living Commission, which has been investigating the price of sugar, finding that Louisville retailers are selling sugar at prices varying from ten cents to thirteen cents per pound. Although the State Commission has been advised by the Federal Food Commission that eleven cents a pound is a fair charge for sugar, the former figures that a reasonable profit may be made at the lower prices.

Conference At Shelbyville

The Kentucky Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, will convene in Shelbyville, Wednesday, Sept. 3, and will close either on the Sunday evening of Monday morning following. Two hundred and twenty-five delegates will attend the conference besides numerous visitors. Bishop Collins Denny, of Richmond, Va., will preside. Sufficient homes have already been secured to adequately care for the conference.

As a result of eating cold storage turkey at a dinner in his honor, Col. Charles A. Weybrecht just back from France, died at Alliance, Ohio, as did his hostess, Mrs. Helen Sebring Gahriss and Bon Jennings, a colored waiter, at the Lakeside Country Club, where the dinner was given. Mr. and Mrs. John C. Shearer are paralyzed and their recovery is said to be extremely doubtful.

OUR ICE DELIVERY SERVICE

Richmond has had the best ice delivery in the state this season because of the intelligent co-operation we have gotten from the public in the matter of supply and delivery. We wish to express our thanks for this help, now that the strenuous period is past, and wish to suggest that we want this co-operation continued during the rest of the season and in future years. It is to our mutual interest for the public to report to us direct and at once any complaint they may have either as to the behavior of our men or the weight given.

BAPTISTS TO MEET NEXT AT MT. TABOR

The annual session of the Tates Creek Association was held with the Baptist church at Freedom, Garrard county, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Mr. Miller Lackey, who was elected Clerk last year, having moved to Mississippi, the body elected Rev. A. T. Ross as Clerk.

Mr. Elvada Tudor, who has served as Moderator many years, called the meeting to order. The devotional services were conducted by Rev. E. D. Davis. An address on Stewardship was delivered by Rev. A. T. Ross, one on Home Missions by Rev. John Cunningham; on Foreign Missions by Rev. L. A. Byrd; on Baptist Resources and Obligations in Kentucky by Rev. C. S. Ellis; and on Multiplying Baptist Usefulness by Rev. O. Olin Green.

The morning session on Wednesday was given to reports and other matters of business. Rev. Edward Lawson addressed the congregation on The Cry of Dependent Youth, and Old Age.

The Baptist 75 Million Dollar Campaign was discussed by Dr. M. P. Hunt. A large crowd was in attendance both days, with dinner served on the grounds by the ladies of the church.

After a business session on Wednesday afternoon the association adjourned to meet with the church at Mt. Tabor the 4th Tuesday in August, 1920.

CERTAIN NEGROES ASK EQUALITY IN TREATY

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Aug. 28.—Asking an amendment to the peace treaty providing for racial equality, a delegation of negroes, speaking for the National Equal Rights League, told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today that serious trouble is expected unless better treatment is accorded negroes in the United States. A Whaley, a New York negro, asserted the "negro means business now. There can be no compromise."

Dr. M. H. Dollar, of Richmond, is named among 14 applicants for state license to practice veterinary were examined at Frankfort by the State Board of Veterinary Examiners.
